

Travel arrangements

In addition to accommodations, some patients and their families may need airline transportation to UPMC. Navigant International is UPMC's authorized travel agency. For help in making your travel arrangements, call:

Navigant International
412-521-7300 or 1-800-345-2984

From Pittsburgh International Airport

If traveling by air, you can come to UPMC hospitals in Oakland and Shadyside from Pittsburgh International Airport via:

Yellow Cab
412-665-8100

Regency Transportation
412-922-6888

Airlines Transportation
412-321-4990

Pittsburgh's Port Authority Transit (PAT) runs a shuttle service, 28X - Airport Flyer, between Pittsburgh International Airport and Oakland for a minimal fee. Visit PAT on the World Wide Web at www.ridegold.com or call 412-442-2000 for schedule and fare information. Shuttle service from the airport to area hotels also is available; call your hotel for details.

Parking

UPMC has several convenient garages. Families who are staying for extended periods or who have financial need may be able to get parking discounts. Contact Parking Operations at 412-647-3194 for details.

Oxygen

If you use oxygen, call your oxygen provider about your needs when you travel and while in Pittsburgh. Unless it has a Pittsburgh office, your provider should contact PresbyCare, the UPMC affiliate that can provide oxygen, at 1-800-535-2273 or 1-888-860-2273 (toll-free) for help. Please make plans for your oxygen before you travel so there is little or no cost to you.
